

Interdisciplinary dialogue

Heterodox economic approaches to land use change and conflict - Institutional framing and economic valuation

PROGRAMME

Wibke Crewett & Jesko Hirschfeld: Welcome and introduction

Jesko Hirschfeld (IÖW): Economic valuation of ecosystem services of land management strategies

Wibke Crewett (WINS/IRI THESys): Institutional perspectives on bioeconomy feedstock production

Julian Sagebiel (IÖW): Does the place of residence affect land use preferences? Evidence from a discrete choice experiment in Germany

Sarah Keuthmann (WINS/IRI THESys): Institutional determinants for the development of the production of short rotation coppice systems as in Brandenburg/Germany – Methods, theories and frameworks

7 July 2017, 1-3 pm

IRI THESys, Friedrichstr. 191,

4th floor, room 4088

www.iri-thesys.org/2nd-dialogue worskhop series for out-of-the-box thinkers